6Meeting Date: 7/18/2026

Bladnoch 13 YO
Lowland Distillery. 46.7% ABV

Bladnoch 13-Year-Old is a vibrant Lowland single malt aged exclusively in ex-bourbon casks and bottled at a robust 46.7% ABV. It offers a creamy, fruit-forward profile loaded with vanilla, citrus, and floral notes like Parma Violets. It's an approachable but complex dram highly rated by enthusiasts.

- Nose: Delicate and refreshing with aromas of fresh-cut grass, honey, sweet vanilla, and citrus zest. Some describe it as a "delectable breakfast in a glass" with buttery, toasted notes.
- Palate: Creamy and mouth-coating. Crisp orchard fruits, fresh apples, and floral highlights blend harmoniously with gentle wood spice and blackcurrant or cherry undertones,
- Finish: Medium to long, tapering off with a crisp, sweet mix of lingering honey and fruit. [1, 2, 4, 5]
- The Verdict: It is generally well-received by the whisky community, often earning high marks (typically around 86/100 on platforms like WhiskeyBase. Reviewers appreciate that it tastes slightly older than its 13 years and boasts excellent balance without being overly oaky

Color: (Light Gold) Gold Dark Gold Light Amber Amber Dark Amber

Nose: Floral (Citrus) Grass Honey Coconut Malty (Oak) Nutty Molasses Sherry (Sweet) Smoky Pungent Sea Air Peat

Palate: Woody Zesty (Vanilla) Oily Peppery Raisins Intense Grassy Caramel Berries Chocolate Floral Citrus

(Honey) Coconut Nutty Sherry (Sweet) Smoky Malty Peat Rich/Earthy Salty

Alive Balanced Abrasive (Assertive) Delicate Bland

Body: Light Medium Full Smooth Rich (Creamy) Textured Big Crisp (Mouth-coating) Silky Velvet

Finish: Short Medium Long Abrupt Bitter Intense (Tingling) Robust (Oaky) Crisp Delicate

Length of finish (minutes): 1 1.5 2 2.5 (3) 3.5 4 4.5 5

Score: 87 Notes: _____ Name: L Gray

Glenmorangie Harrison Ford
Limited Edition
Highland Distillery. 46.5% ABV

It would have been easy to dismiss this as another celebrity tie-in, but that would miss the point. The partnership may bring new eyes to the brand, yet the whisky itself stays true to Glenmorangie's house style, favouring elegance, fruit and balance over power. Existing fans will recognise the DNA immediately, while those discovering the distillery through Harrison Ford are likely to understand why Glenmorangie has remained one of Scotland's most consistently approachable single malts. The bottle may become a collectible, but it's the whisky inside that deserves the attention.

Nose: The first impression is bright and inviting, with ripe peach, apricot and orange blossom sitting over soft vanilla and fresh honey. As the whisky opens, gentle baking spice and toasted almonds emerge, while light oak keeps everything balanced without becoming dominant. It has the familiar elegance that Glenmorangie does so well.

Palate: The texture is creamy and composed, opening with honeyed malt before layers of ripe stone fruit, lemon curd and vanilla develop across the palate. The oak influence builds gradually, bringing soft cinnamon, toasted brioche and a hint of white chocolate. Nothing feels forced. The whisky remains balanced throughout, allowing the distillery character to remain the focal point rather than chasing excessive cask influence.

Finish: Medium to long, with gentle spice, citrus peel and soft vanilla lingering alongside toasted oak before fading cleanly.

Color: Pale Yellow Yellow Gold Greeny-Gold Bronze Deep Amber Mahogany

Nose: Floral Citrus Grass Honey Coconut Malty Oak Nutty Molasses Sherry Sweet Smoky Pungent Sea Air Peat

Palate: Woody Zesty Vanilla Oily Peppery Raisins Intense Grassy Caramel Berries Chocolate Floral Citrus

Honey Coconut Nutty Sherry Sweet Smoky Malty Peat Rich/Earthy Salty

Alive Balanced Abrasive Assertive Delicate Bland

Body: Light Medium Full Smooth Rich Creamy Textured Big Crisp Mouth-coating Silky Velvet

Finish: Short Medium Long Abrupt Bitter Intense Tingling Robust Oaky Crisp Delicate

Length of finish (minutes): 1 1.5 2 2.5 3 3.5 4 4.5 5

Score: 86 Notes: _____ Name: L Gray

6Meeting Date: 7/18/2026

Bladnoch 13 YO
Lowland Distillery. 46.7% ABV

Bladnoch 13-Year-Old is a vibrant Lowland single malt aged exclusively in ex-bourbon casks and bottled at a robust 46.7% ABV. It offers a creamy, fruit-forward profile loaded with vanilla, citrus, and floral notes like Parma Violets. It's an approachable but complex dram highly rated by enthusiasts.

- Nose: Delicate and refreshing with aromas of fresh-cut grass, honey, sweet vanilla, and citrus zest. Some describe it as a "delectable breakfast in a glass" with buttery, toasted notes.
- Palate: Creamy and mouth-coating. Crisp orchard fruits, fresh apples, and floral highlights blend harmoniously with gentle wood spice and blackcurrant or cherry undertones,
- Finish: Medium to long, tapering off with a crisp, sweet mix of lingering honey and fruit. [1, 2, 4, 5]
- The Verdict: It is generally well-received by the whisky community, often earning high marks (typically around 86/100 on platforms like WhiskeyBase. Reviewers appreciate that it tastes slightly older than its 13 years and boasts excellent balance without being overly oaky

Color: Light Gold Gold Dark Gold Light Amber Amber Dark Amber

Nose: Floral Citrus Grass Honey Coconut Malty Oak Nutty Molasses Sherry Sweet Smoky Pungent Sea Air Peat

Buttery Vanilla

Palate: Woody Zesty Vanilla Oily Peppery Raisins Intense Grassy Caramel Berries Chocolate Floral Citrus

Honey Coconut Nutty Sherry Sweet Smoky Malty Peat Rich/Earthy Salty

Alive Balanced Abrasive Assertive Delicate Bland

Body: Light Medium Full Smooth Rich Creamy Textured Big Crisp Mouth-coating Silky Velvet

Finish: Short Medium Long Abrupt Bitter Intense Tingling Robust Oaky Crisp Delicate

Length of finish (minutes): 1 1.5 2 2.5 3 3.5 4 4.5 5

Score: 89 Notes: Unique nose. Complex on the palate. Excellent finish-long. Excellent Evening Sipper! Name: Richard Nail

Glenmorangie Harrison Ford
Limited Edition
Highland Distillery. 46.5% ABV

It would have been easy to dismiss this as another celebrity tie-in, but that would miss the point. The partnership may bring new eyes to the brand, yet the whisky itself stays true to Glenmorangie's house style, favouring elegance, fruit and balance over power. Existing fans will recognise the DNA immediately, while those discovering the distillery through Harrison Ford are likely to understand why Glenmorangie has remained one of Scotland's most consistently approachable single malts. The bottle may become a collectible, but it's the whisky inside that deserves the attention.

Nose: The first impression is bright and inviting, with ripe peach, apricot and orange blossom sitting over soft vanilla and fresh honey. As the whisky opens, gentle baking spice and toasted almonds emerge, while light oak keeps everything balanced without becoming dominant. It has the familiar elegance that Glenmorangie does so well.

Palate: The texture is creamy and composed, opening with honeyed malt before layers of ripe stone fruit, lemon curd and vanilla develop across the palate. The oak influence builds gradually, bringing soft cinnamon, toasted brioche and a hint of white chocolate. Nothing feels forced. The whisky remains balanced throughout, allowing the distillery character to remain the focal point rather than chasing excessive cask influence.

Finish: Medium to long, with gentle spice, citrus peel and soft vanilla lingering alongside toasted oak before fading cleanly.

Color: Pale Yellow Yellow Gold Greeny-Gold Bronze Deep Amber Mahogany

Nose: Floral Citrus Grass Honey Coconut Malty Oak Nutty Molasses Sherry Sweet Smoky Pungent Sea Air Peat

Palate: Woody Zesty Vanilla Oily Peppery Raisins Intense Grassy Caramel Berries Chocolate Floral Citrus

Honey Coconut Nutty Sherry Sweet Smoky Malty Peat Rich/Earthy Salty

Alive Balanced Abrasive Assertive Delicate Bland

Body: Light Medium Full Smooth Rich Creamy Textured Big Crisp Mouth-coating Silky Velvet

Finish: Short Medium Long Abrupt Bitter Intense Tingling Robust Oaky Crisp Delicate

Length of finish (minutes): 1 1.5 2 2.5 3 3.5 4 4.5 5

Score: 8 Notes: Smooth Supper — Nice Not Sue Worth £100.00 Sweet on The End. Name: Richard Neal

6Meeting Date: 7/18/2026

Bladnoch 13 YO
Lowland Distillery. 46.7% ABV

Bladnoch 13-Year-Old is a vibrant Lowland single malt aged exclusively in ex-bourbon casks and bottled at a robust 46.7% ABV. It offers a creamy, fruit-forward profile loaded with vanilla, citrus, and floral notes like Parma Violets. It's an approachable but complex dram highly rated by enthusiasts.

- Nose: Delicate and refreshing with aromas of fresh-cut grass, honey, sweet vanilla, and citrus zest. Some describe it as a "delectable breakfast in a glass" with buttery, toasted notes.
- Palate: Creamy and mouth-coating. Crisp orchard fruits, fresh apples, and floral highlights blend harmoniously with gentle wood spice and blackcurrant or cherry undertones,
- Finish: Medium to long, tapering off with a crisp, sweet mix of lingering honey and fruit. [1, 2, 4, 5]
- The Verdict: It is generally well-received by the whisky community, often earning high marks (typically around 86/100 on platforms like WhiskeyBase. Reviewers appreciate that it tastes slightly older than its 13 years and boasts excellent balance without being overly oaky

Color: Light Gold Gold Dark Gold Light Amber Amber Dark Amber

Nose: Floral Citrus Grass Honey Coconut Malty Oak Nutty Molasses Sherry Sweet Smoky Pungent Sea Air Peat

Palate: Woody Zesty Vanilla Oily Peppery Raisins Intense Grassy Caramel Berries Chocolate Floral Citrus

Honey Coconut Nutty Sherry Sweet Smoky Malty Peat Rich/Earthy Salty

Alive Balanced Abrasive Assertive Delicate Bland

Body: Light Medium Full Smooth Rich Creamy Textured Big Crisp Mouth-coating Silky Velvet

Finish: Short Medium Long Abrupt Bitter Intense Tingling Robust Oaky Crisp Delicate

Length of finish (minutes): 1 1.5 2 2.5 3 3.5 4 4.5 5

Score: 86 Notes: Unique Nose! Name: Jim

Glenmorangie Harrison Ford
Limited Edition
Highland Distillery. 46.5% ABV

It would have been easy to dismiss this as another celebrity tie-in, but that would miss the point. The partnership may bring new eyes to the brand, yet the whisky itself stays true to Glenmorangie's house style, favouring elegance, fruit and balance over power. Existing fans will recognise the DNA immediately, while those discovering the distillery through Harrison Ford are likely to understand why Glenmorangie has remained one of Scotland's most consistently approachable single malts. The bottle may become a collectible, but it's the whisky inside that deserves the attention.

Nose: The first impression is bright and inviting, with ripe peach, apricot and orange blossom sitting over soft vanilla and fresh honey. As the whisky opens, gentle baking spice and toasted almonds emerge, while light oak keeps everything balanced without becoming dominant. It has the familiar elegance that Glenmorangie does so well.

Palate: The texture is creamy and composed, opening with honeyed malt before layers of ripe stone fruit, lemon curd and vanilla develop across the palate. The oak influence builds gradually, bringing soft cinnamon, toasted brioche and a hint of white chocolate. Nothing feels forced. The whisky remains balanced throughout, allowing the distillery character to remain the focal point rather than chasing excessive cask influence.

Finish: Medium to long, with gentle spice, citrus peel and soft vanilla lingering alongside toasted oak before fading cleanly.

Color: Pale Yellow Yellow Gold Greeny-Gold Bronze Deep Amber Mahogany

Nose: Floral Citrus Grass Honey Coconut Malty Oak Nutty Molasses Sherry Sweet Smoky Pungent Sea Air Peat

Palate: Woody Zesty Vanilla Oily Peppery Raisins Intense Grassy Caramel Berries Chocolate Floral Citrus

Honey Coconut Nutty Sherry Sweet Smoky Malty Peat Rich/Earthy Salty

Alive Balanced Abrasive Assertive Delicate Bland

Body: Light Medium Full Smooth Rich Creamy Textured Big Crisp Mouth-coating Silky Velvet

Finish: Short Medium Long Abrupt Bitter Intense Tingling Robust Oaky Crisp Delicate

Length of finish (minutes): 1 1.5 2 2.5 3 3.5 4 4.5 5

Score: 90 Notes: Nice! Easy Name: Jim

BLADNOCH

Glenmorangie Harrison Ford Limited Edition Highland Distillery. 46.5% ABV

It would have been easy to dismiss this as another celebrity tie-in, but that would miss the point. The partnership may bring new eyes to the brand, yet the whisky itself stays true to Glenmorangie's house style, favouring elegance, fruit and balance over power. Existing fans will recognise the DNA immediately, while those discovering the distillery through Harrison Ford are likely to understand why Glenmorangie has remained one of Scotland's most consistently approachable single malts. The bottle may become a collectible, but it's the whisky inside that deserves the attention.

Nose: The first impression is bright and inviting, with ripe peach, apricot and orange blossom sitting over soft vanilla and fresh honey. As the whisky opens, gentle baking spice and toasted almonds emerge, while light oak keeps everything balanced without becoming dominant. It has the familiar elegance that Glenmorangie does so well.

Palate: The texture is creamy and composed, opening with honeyed malt before layers of ripe stone fruit, lemon curd and vanilla develop across the palate. The oak influence builds gradually, bringing soft cinnamon, toasted brioche and a hint of white chocolate. Nothing feels forced. The whisky remains balanced throughout, allowing the distillery character to remain the focal point rather than chasing excessive cask influence.

Finish: Medium to long, with gentle spice, citrus peel and soft vanilla lingering alongside toasted oak before fading cleanly.

Color: (Pale Yellow) Yellow Gold Greeny-Gold Bronze Deep Amber Mahogany

Nose: Floral Citrus Grass Honey Coconut Malty Oak Nutty Molasses Sherry (Sweet) Smoky Pungent Sea Air Peat

Palate: Woody (Zesty) Vanilla Oily Peppery (Raisins Intense) Grassy Caramel Berries Chocolate Floral Citrus

Honey Coconut Nutty Sherry Sweet Smoky Malty Peat Rich/Earthy Salty

Alive Balanced Abrasive Assertive Delicate Bland

Body: (Light) Medium Full Smooth Rich Creamy Textured Big Crisp Mouth-coating Silky Velvet

Finish: Short Medium Long Abrupt Bitter Intense (Tingling) Robust Oaky Crisp Delicate

Length of finish (minutes): 1 1.5 2 2.5 (3) 3.5 4 4.5 5

Score: 78 Notes: _____ Name: KURT BROWN

Meeting Date: 7/18/2026

GLENMORANGIE → Bladnoch 13 YO
Lowland Distillery. 46.7% ABV

Bladnoch 13-Year-Old is a vibrant Lowland single malt aged exclusively in ex-bourbon casks and bottled at a robust 46.7% ABV. It offers a creamy, fruit-forward profile loaded with vanilla, citrus, and floral notes like Parma Violets. It's an approachable but complex dram highly rated by enthusiasts.

- Nose: Delicate and refreshing with aromas of fresh-cut grass, honey, sweet vanilla, and citrus zest. Some describe it as a "delectable breakfast in a glass" with buttery, toasted notes.
- Palate: Creamy and mouth-coating. Crisp orchard fruits, fresh apples, and floral highlights blend harmoniously with gentle wood spice and blackcurrant or cherry undertones,
- Finish: Medium to long, tapering off with a crisp, sweet mix of lingering honey and fruit. [1, 2, 4, 5]
- The Verdict: It is generally well-received by the whisky community, often earning high marks (typically around 86/100 on platforms like WhiskeyBase. Reviewers appreciate that it tastes slightly older than its 13 years and boasts excellent balance without being overly oaky

Color: Light Gold Gold Dark Gold Light Amber Amber Dark Amber

Nose: Floral Citrus Grass Honey Coconut Malty Oak Nutty Molasses Sherry Sweet Smoky Pungent Sea Air Peat

Palate: Woody Zesty Vanilla Oily Peppery Raisins Intense Grassy Caramel Berries Chocolate Floral Citrus

Honey Coconut Nutty Sherry Sweet Smoky Malty Peat Rich/Earthy Salty

Alive Balanced Abrasive Assertive Delicate Bland

Body: Light Medium Full Smooth Rich Creamy Textured Big Crisp Mouth-coating Silky Velvet

Finish: Short Medium Long Abrupt Bitter Intense Tingling Robust Oaky Crisp Delicate

Length of finish (minutes): 1 1.5 2 2.5 3 3.5 4 4.5 5

Score: 73 Notes: _____ Name: KURT BROWN

6Meeting Date: 7/18/2026

Bladnoch 13 YO 2019
Lowland Distillery. 46.7% ABV

$85 at Total Wine

Bladnoch 13-Year-Old is a vibrant Lowland single malt aged exclusively in ex-bourbon casks and bottled at a robust 46.7% ABV. It offers a creamy, fruit-forward profile loaded with vanilla, citrus, and floral notes like Parma Violets. It's an approachable but complex dram highly rated by enthusiasts.

- Nose: Delicate and refreshing with aromas of fresh-cut grass, honey, sweet vanilla, and citrus zest. Some describe it as a "delectable breakfast in a glass" with buttery, toasted notes.
- Palate: Creamy and mouth-coating. Crisp orchard fruits, fresh apples, and floral highlights blend harmoniously with gentle wood spice and blackcurrant or cherry undertones,
- Finish: Medium to long, tapering off with a crisp, sweet mix of lingering honey and fruit. [1, 2, 4, 5]
- The Verdict: It is generally well-received by the whisky community, often earning high marks (typically around 86/100 on platforms like WhiskeyBase. Reviewers appreciate that it tastes slightly older than its 13 years and boasts excellent balance without being overly oaky

Color: Light Gold (Gold) Dark Gold Light Amber Amber Dark Amber

Nose: Floral Citrus Grass Honey Coconut (Malty) Oak Nutty Molasses Sherry (Sweet) Smoky Pungent Sea Air Peat

Palate: Woody Zesty (Vanilla) Oily Peppery Raisins Intense Grassy (Caramel) Berries Chocolate Floral Citrus

Honey Coconut Nutty Sherry Sweet Smoky Malty Peat Rich/Earthy Salty

Alive (Balanced) Abrasive Assertive (Delicate) Bland Buttery

Body: Light Medium Full (Smooth) Rich (Creamy) Textured Big Crisp Mouth-coating Silky Velvet

Finish: Short (Medium) Long Abrupt Bitter Intense Tingling Robust Oaky Crisp (Delicate)

Length of finish (minutes): 1 1.5 (2) 2.5 3 3.5 4 4.5 5

Score: 88 Notes: lovely flavor + smell Name: Frank

Glenmorangie Harrison Ford
Limited Edition
Highland Distillery. 46.5% ABV

#102

It would have been easy to dismiss this as another celebrity tie-in, but that would miss the point. The partnership may bring new eyes to the brand, yet the whisky itself stays true to Glenmorangie's house style, favouring elegance, fruit and balance over power. Existing fans will recognise the DNA immediately, while those discovering the distillery through Harrison Ford are likely to understand why Glenmorangie has remained one of Scotland's most consistently approachable single malts. The bottle may become a collectible, but it's the whisky inside that deserves the attention.

Nose: The first impression is bright and inviting, with ripe peach, apricot and orange blossom sitting over soft vanilla and fresh honey. As the whisky opens, gentle baking spice and toasted almonds emerge, while light oak keeps everything balanced without becoming dominant. It has the familiar elegance that Glenmorangie does so well.

Palate: The texture is creamy and composed, opening with honeyed malt before layers of ripe stone fruit, lemon curd and vanilla develop across the palate. The oak influence builds gradually, bringing soft cinnamon, toasted brioche and a hint of white chocolate. Nothing feels forced. The whisky remains balanced throughout, allowing the distillery character to remain the focal point rather than chasing excessive cask influence.

Finish: Medium to long, with gentle spice, citrus peel and soft vanilla lingering alongside toasted oak before fading cleanly.

Color: Pale Yellow Yellow Gold Greeny-Gold Bronze Deep Amber Mahogany (Regular)

Nose: Floral Citrus Grass Honey Coconut Malty Oak Nutty Molasses Sherry Sweet Smoky Pungent Sea Air Peat (very mild)

Palate: Woody Zesty Vanilla Oily Peppery Raisins Intense Grassy Caramel Berries Chocolate Floral Citrus

Honey Coconut Nutty Sherry Sweet Smoky Malty Peat Rich/Earthy Salty

Alive Balanced Abrasive Assertive Delicate Bland

Body: Light Medium Full Smooth Rich Creamy Textured Big Crisp Mouth-coating Silky Velvet

Finish: Short Medium Long Abrupt Bitter Intense Tingling Robust Oaky Crisp Delicate

Length of finish (minutes): 1 1.5 2 2.5 3 3.5 4 4.5 5

Score: 87 Notes: opens soft + evolves into peppery Name: Frank evolving scotch

becomes alive after a slow start

Glenmorangie Harrison Ford
Limited Edition
Highland Distillery. 46.5% ABV

It would have been easy to dismiss this as another celebrity tie-in, but that would miss the point. The partnership may bring new eyes to the brand, yet the whisky itself stays true to Glenmorangie's house style, favouring elegance, fruit and balance over power. Existing fans will recognise the DNA immediately, while those discovering the distillery through Harrison Ford are likely to understand why Glenmorangie has remained one of Scotland's most consistently approachable single malts. The bottle may become a collectible, but it's the whisky inside that deserves the attention.

Nose: The first impression is bright and inviting, with ripe peach, apricot and orange blossom sitting over soft vanilla and fresh honey. As the whisky opens, gentle baking spice and toasted almonds emerge, while light oak keeps everything balanced without becoming dominant. It has the familiar elegance that Glenmorangie does so well.

Palate: The texture is creamy and composed, opening with honeyed malt before layers of ripe stone fruit, lemon curd and vanilla develop across the palate. The oak influence builds gradually, bringing soft cinnamon, toasted brioche and a hint of white chocolate. Nothing feels forced. The whisky remains balanced throughout, allowing the distillery character to remain the focal point rather than chasing excessive cask influence.

Finish: Medium to long, with gentle spice, citrus peel and soft vanilla lingering alongside toasted oak before fading cleanly.

Color: Pale Yellow Yellow Gold Greeny-Gold Bronze Deep Amber Mahogany

Nose: Floral Citrus Grass Honey Coconut Malty Oak Nutty Molasses Sherry Sweet Smoky Pungent Sea Air Peat

Palate: Woody Zesty Vanilla Oily Peppery Raisins Intense Grassy Caramel Berries Chocolate Floral Citrus

Honey Coconut Nutty Sherry Sweet Smoky Malty Peat Rich/Earthy Salty

Alive Balanced Abrasive Assertive Delicate Bland

Body: Light Medium Full Smooth Rich Creamy Textured Big Crisp Mouth-coating Silky Velvet

Finish: Short Medium Long Abrupt Bitter Intense Tingling Robust Oaky Crisp Delicate

Length of finish (minutes): 1 1.5 2 2.5 3 3.5 4 4.5 5

Score: 92 Notes: _____ Name: Mike

6Meeting Date: 7/18/2026

Bladnoch 13 YO
Lowland Distillery. 46.7% ABV

Bladnoch 13-Year-Old is a vibrant Lowland single malt aged exclusively in ex-bourbon casks and bottled at a robust 46.7% ABV. It offers a creamy, fruit-forward profile loaded with vanilla, citrus, and floral notes like Parma Violets. It's an approachable but complex dram highly rated by enthusiasts.

- Nose: Delicate and refreshing with aromas of fresh-cut grass, honey, sweet vanilla, and citrus zest. Some describe it as a "delectable breakfast in a glass" with buttery, toasted notes.
- Palate: Creamy and mouth-coating. Crisp orchard fruits, fresh apples, and floral highlights blend harmoniously with gentle wood spice and blackcurrant or cherry undertones,
- Finish: Medium to long, tapering off with a crisp, sweet mix of lingering honey and fruit. [1, 2, 4, 5]
- The Verdict: It is generally well-received by the whisky community, often earning high marks (typically around 86/100 on platforms like WhiskeyBase. Reviewers appreciate that it tastes slightly older than its 13 years and boasts excellent balance without being overly oaky

Color: Light Gold (Gold) Dark Gold Light Amber Amber Dark Amber

Nose: Floral Citrus Grass Honey Coconut Malty Oak Nutty Molasses Sherry (Sweet) (Smoky) Pungent Sea Air Peat

Palate: Woody Zesty Vanilla Oily (Peppery) Raisins Intense Grassy Caramel Berries Chocolate Floral Citrus

Honey Coconut Nutty Sherry (Sweet) Smoky Malty Peat Rich/Earthy Salty

Alive Balanced Abrasive Assertive Delicate Bland

Body: Light (Medium) Full (Smooth) Rich Creamy Textured Big Crisp Mouth-coating Silky Velvet

Finish: (Short) Medium Long Abrupt Bitter Intense Tingling Robust Oaky Crisp Delicate

Length of finish (minutes): 1 (1.5) 2 2.5 3 3.5 4 4.5 5

Score: 84 Notes: Easy to drink Name: Mike