LAGAVULIN 16 YO
ISLAY 43% ABV

Lagavulin 16 Year Old is a benchmark Islay single malt known for its intense peat smoke, maritime brine, and rich sherry sweetness. Bottled at 43% ABV, it features a thick, oily palate with notes of iodine, kippers, dried fruits, and a long, warming, spicy finish. It is widely considered a deeply complex, savory, and quintessential heavily-peated Scotch.

- Nose: Intense, thick peat smoke, iodine, seaweed, and sweet spices. Underlying notes of mature sherry, creamy vanilla, and orchard fruits like roasted peaches.
- Palate:
- Rich and thick, featuring a powerful combination of smoky peat, maritime salt, and sweet dried fruit (figs, dates) from sherry cask maturation. Notes of dark chocolate, smoked meats, and orange zest often appear.
- Finish: Very long, elegant, and warming. It dries out, leaving lingering smoke, sea salt, pepper, and sometimes a hint of tobacco.
